

Harry Lauder's buying you a drink

Read his invitation—

Dear Mr. Liebmann:

When I first tasted Good Old Scotch Brew, on my arrival in New York last fall, the wonderful taste took me back to my own bonnie Scotland.

Now I want every man and woman to drink a bottle of Good Old Scotch Brew on me!

This excellent brew is one more bond between America and the land of my birth. I am glad that America's leading malt drink comes from Scotland - and that Scotland's finest malt drink is the most popular - allowed by the law - in America.

Will you kindly arrange the details so that every one of my friends in Washington may taste Good Old Scotch Brew with their lunch, dinner or supper as my guest at any hotel or restaurant?

Cordially yours,

Harry Lauder
