

France Celebrates "Most Glorious Battle" of Verdun

Scene shows French officials decorating graves of French unknown heroes at Verdun.

The fifth anniversary of the battle of Verdun was celebrated recently in that glorious city by the French people. The ceremony was presided over by ex-President Poincaré. Beautiful wreaths of flowers were placed over the graves of the French unknown heroes.